How to use this workbook

This workbook follows the interactive study. It is divided into clearly marked parts:

- Original prophetic direction: the declarations and directions exactly as spoken in the service.
- Supplementary biblical study: lessons, word studies and commentary. These are study helps, not the minister's words.
- Personalized prayers: family prayers built from the King James Scripture used in the service.
- Interactive quizzes: questions with an answer key at the back.

All Scripture is quoted from the King James Version. Words in [square brackets] were unclear in the recording; the bracketed word is a suggested reading.

SUPPLEMENTARY BIBLICAL STUDY

Beginner lessons

Simple words. One truth at a time. Every verse is King James Version.

Lesson 1. Visitation means God steps in

> “A visitation is a time of timely intervention, divine visitation. ... is a supernatural and and personal moment when God actively steps into human affairs to manifest His power, presence, or purpose.”
> Direct quotation · Prophet Prince Amo David, service of Friday, October 16, 2026

In the Bible, when the LORD visited Sarah, He came and did what He had promised. Sarah had a son.

Key point: God keeps His word. Genesis 21:1 says He did unto Sarah "as he had spoken."

> Genesis 21:1 (KJV)
> [1] And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

Reflection

1. In your own words, what happened in this passage?

2. What does this show you about God?

Lesson 2. The church prayed for Peter

Peter was in prison. The church did not stop praying for him. God sent an angel, and Peter walked out free.

Key point: Prayer was made "without ceasing." That means the church kept on praying.

> Acts 12:5 (KJV)
> [5] Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

Reflection

1. In your own words, what happened in this passage?

2. What does this show you about God?

Lesson 3. Abraham did not let the moment pass

Three men came near Abraham's tent. Abraham ran to meet them. He asked them not to pass by.

Key point: Abraham said, "pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant."

> Genesis 18:2–3 (KJV)
> [2] And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground, [3] And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

Reflection

1. In your own words, what happened in this passage?

2. What does this show you about God?

Lesson 4. Isaac means laughter

God gave Sarah a son in her old age. His name, Isaac, comes from the Hebrew word for laughter.

Key point: Sarah said, "God hath made me to laugh."

> Genesis 21:3 (KJV)
> [3] And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

> Genesis 21:6 (KJV)
> [6] And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

Reflection

1. In your own words, what happened in this passage?

2. What does this show you about God?

Lesson 5. Children are a gift from the LORD

The Bible calls children "an heritage of the LORD." That means they belong to Him and are given by Him.

Key point: Parents can bring their children before the Lord in prayer.

> Psalm 127:3 (KJV)
> [3] Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

Reflection

1. In your own words, what happened in this passage?

2. What does this show you about God?

SUPPLEMENTARY BIBLICAL STUDY

Intermediate lessons

Context, related passages, and comparisons. Every verse is King James Version.

Lesson 1. Peter rescued, James killed

Context. Speaker: Luke, the writer of Acts, records the account. Setting: Herod the king had killed James the brother of John and put Peter in prison during the days of unleavened bread. Many were gathered praying at the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark (Acts 12:12).

In the service, Prophet Prince taught that Peter was rescued because the church prayed. The chapter itself places the church's prayer (verse 5) right before the angel's rescue (verse 7).

> “One thing that magnified his deliverance was that it was a signal answer to prayer”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Acts 12

> “for prayers and tears are the church's arms; therewith she fights, not only against her enemies, but for her friends”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Acts 12

Acts 12:1–5 (KJV)
[1] Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.
[2] And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. [3] And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)
[4] And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.
[5] Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

Acts 12:12 (KJV)
[12] And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 2. John the Baptist in prison

Context. John was in prison when he sent two of his disciples to ask Jesus, "Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?"

In the service, the Prophet used John's time in prison as a contrast with Peter: he taught that there was no one to intercede for John. The verses themselves record John's question from prison.

> Matthew 11:2–3 (KJV)
> [2] Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,
> [3] And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

Reflection

2. Where in your life or family can you apply this today?

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 3. Abraham and Sarah at Mamre

Context. The LORD appeared to Abraham in the plains of Mamre while he sat in the tent door. Abraham ran to serve. The LORD promised Sarah a son, and asked, "Is any thing too hard for the LORD?"

Both Abraham (Genesis 17:17) and Sarah (Genesis 18:12) laughed at the promise. When it came true, Sarah's laughter became joy (Genesis 21:6).

> “When mercies have been long deferred they are the more welcome when they come.”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Genesis 21

Genesis 18:1–14 (KJV)

[1] And the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day; [2] And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground, [3] And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant: [4] Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree: [5] And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said. [6] And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth. [7] And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it. [8] And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat. [9] And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. [10] And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him. [11] Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. [12] Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? [13] And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old? [14] Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

Genesis 17:17 (KJV)

[17] Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

Reflection

1. What does the passage show about how God works with His people?

2. Where in your life or family can you apply this today?

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 4. Not weak in faith

Context. Speaker: the apostle Paul writes to the church at Rome about Abraham's faith. Hebrews 11 lists people who lived by faith.

Abraham "staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief." Sarah received strength "because she judged him faithful who had promised." Hebrews 11:13 also says some "died in faith, not having received the promises." The service prayed that this generation would see the promise.

> Romans 4:17–21 (KJV)
> 17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. 18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: 20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

> Hebrews 11:11 (KJV)
> 11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

> Hebrews 11:13 (KJV)
> [13] These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

Reflection

1. What does the passage show about how God works with His people?

2. Where in your life or family can you apply this today?

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 5. The Shunammite woman and the man of God

Context. Scripture note: In the service the man of God was called "the prophet Elijah." In the King James text of 2 Kings 4:8-9, the man of God who passed by Shunem was Elisha.

The woman perceived "that this is an holy man of God" and prepared a room for him. Later she received a son (2 Kings 4:16-17).

> 2 Kings 4:8–10 (KJV)
> [8] And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. [9] And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually. [10] Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

Reflection

1. What does the passage show about how God works with His people?

2. Where in your life or family can you apply this today?

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 6. The accuser cast down

Context. Speaker: John records what he saw and heard. Revelation 12:7 says "Michael and his angels fought against the dragon."

In the service, the Prophet asked, "Who are those that dethrone Satan and cast him out?" Revelation 12:7-9 answers: Michael and his angels. Verse 11 shows how believers overcame: by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.

> Revelation 12:7–9 (KJV)
> [7] And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, [8] And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. [9] And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

> Revelation 12:10–12 (KJV)
> [10] And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. [11] And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. [12] Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

Reflection

1. What does the passage show about how God works with His people?

2. Where in your life or family can you apply this today?

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 7. Curses reversed and waters healed

Context. Scripture notes: Joshua spoke the curse over the man who would rebuild Jericho (Joshua 6:26), and 1 Kings 16:34 records it coming to pass. In the King James text, the man of God who healed the waters of Jericho was Elisha (2 Kings 2:19-22). The name heard in the transcript as "Ruby" or "Rupi" matches Reuben: Jacob's words over Reuben are in Genesis 49:3-4, and Moses' blessing, "Let Reuben live, and not die," is in Deuteronomy 33:6.

These passages show that the LORD can turn a place under a curse into a place of life.

> Joshua 6:26 (KJV)
> [26] And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

> 1 Kings 16:34 (KJV)
> 34 In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

> 2 Kings 2:19–22 (KJV)
> 19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground barren. 20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they bring it to him. 21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land. 22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

> Genesis 49:3–4 (KJV)
> 3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: 4 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch.

> Deuteronomy 33:6 (KJV)
> 6 Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few.

2. Where in your life or family can you apply this today?

3. Write one prayer based on this passage.

Lesson 8. A new name: Jacob to Israel

Context. Jacob wrestled until the breaking of the day. The LORD changed his name to Israel. God promised Abraham, "I will make of thee a great nation ... and make thy name great."

Proverbs 22:1 says, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

> Genesis 32:27–28 (KJV)
> [27] And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob. [28] And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

> Proverbs 22:1 (KJV)
> [1] A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

> Genesis 12:2–3 (KJV)
> [2] And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: [3] And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

SUPPLEMENTARY BIBLICAL STUDY

Advanced lessons

Hebrew and Greek word studies, lexicons, and commentary. Original biblical meaning is kept separate from the service's deliverance application.

Lesson 1. paqad: "the LORD visited Sarah"

H6485 paqad Strong's: "A primitive root; to visit (with friendly or hostile intent); by analogy, to oversee, muster, charge, care for, miss, deposit, etc." Brown-Driver-Briggs gloss: "attend to, visit, muster, appoint."

Original meaning: the LORD attended to Sarah and fulfilled His spoken promise.

> Prophet Prince prayed, "May you not miss your visitation."
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> “The Lord visited Sarah in mercy, as he had said.”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Genesis 21

> “No word of God shall fall to the ground; for he is faithful that has promised, and God's faithfulness is the stay and support of his people's faith.”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Genesis 21

> Genesis 21:1 (KJV)
> [1] And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

Lesson 2. episkope: "the time of thy visitation"

G1984 episkope Strong's: "inspection (for relief); by implication, superintendence ... visitation." Thayer's: "inspection, visitation."

Original meaning: Jesus wept over Jerusalem because it "knewest not the time of thy visitation."

> the teaching that a person can miss the day of visitation.
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> Luke 19:44 (KJV)
> [44] And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

Lesson 4. Yitschaq: Isaac, laughter

H3327 Yitschaq Strong's: "From tsachaq; laughter (i.e. Mochery); Jitschak (or Isaac), son of Abraham."

Original meaning: the child's name recalls the laughter connected with the promise (Genesis 17:17; 18:12; 21:6).

> "your miracle is name laughter."
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> “God directed him to a name for a memorial, Isaac, laughter”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Genesis 21

> Genesis 21:3 (KJV)
> 3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

> Genesis 21:6–7 (KJV)
> 6 And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me. 7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age.

Lesson 6. pistos: "judged him faithful"

G4103 pistos Strong's: "believing, faithful, sure, true. ... objectively, trustworthy; subjectively, trustful."

Original meaning: Sarah counted God trustworthy, and she received strength to conceive.

> "Today, are you judging God faithful?"
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> Hebrews 11:11 (KJV)
> [11] Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

Lesson 7. kategoros: "the accuser of our brethren"

G2725 kategoros Strong's: "against one in the assembly, i.e. A complainant at law; specially, Satan -- accuser."

Original meaning: the one who accused the brethren before God day and night is cast down.

> "you can only rejoice when the Lord and that battle, that demon, cast it out of your life."
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> Revelation 12:10 (KJV)
> [10] And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Lesson 8. nachalah: children are an "heritage"

H5159 nachalah Strong's: "properly, something inherited, i.e. (abstractly) occupancy, or (concretely) an heirloom; generally an estate, patrimony or portion."

Original meaning: children are the LORD's inheritance given to a family.

> "They will not be liabilities. They will be weapons. They will be assets."
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> “Children are a heritage, and a reward, and are so to be accounted, blessings and not burdens”
> Matthew Henry · Matthew Henry's Commentary, Psalm 127

> Psalm 127:3-5 (KJV)
> [3] Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. [4] As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. [5] Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

H3290 / H3478 Ya'aqob / Yisrael Strong's H3290: "heel-catcher (i.e. Supplanter)." Strong's H3478: "he will rule as God; Jisrael, a symbolical name of Jacob."

Original meaning: the LORD renamed Jacob after he prevailed.

> "may the angel of the Lord change your name."
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> Genesis 32:27–28 (KJV)
> [27] And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob. [28] And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

Lesson 10. Angels named in Scripture

Michael and Gabriel The King James Bible names two angels: Gabriel (Luke 1:19) and Michael the archangel (Jude 9; Daniel 10:13; Revelation 12:7).

Scripture note: the name Raphael, heard in the service, is not found in the 66 books of the King James Bible.

> angels sent to rescue, as in Acts 12:7-10.
> Service application (direct quotation from the service)

> Luke 1:19 (KJV)
> [19] And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

> Jude 1:9 (KJV)
> [9] Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

> Daniel 10:13 (KJV)
> [13] But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

PERSONALIZED PRAYERS

My family prayers

Write the names of those you are praying for, then pray each prayer aloud.

Visit my family

Father, Your Word says that the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and did unto Sarah as He had spoken. I bring (my name) before You. I bring (my family) before You. Do for us as You have spoken in Your Word, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Genesis 21:1 (KJV)
> [1] And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

Prayer without ceasing

Father, as the church prayed without ceasing for Peter, I lift up (my family) before You. Where any of them is bound, send Your help as You sent Your angel to Peter. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Acts 12:5 (KJV)
> [5] Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

My children are an heritage

Father, Your Word says children are an heritage of the LORD. I present (my children) to You. Let them not be ashamed. Let them speak with the enemies in the gate, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Psalm 127:3–5 (KJV)
> [3] Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. [4] As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. [5] Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

No weapon shall prosper

Father, Your Word says no weapon that is formed against Your servants shall prosper. I declare this over (my name), (my spouse), (my children), (my parents), and (my loved ones), in the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Isaiah 54:17 (KJV)
> [17] No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

Not weak in faith

Father, Abraham staggered not at Your promise through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God. Strengthen the faith of (my name) and (my spouse). Let us be fully persuaded that what You have promised, You are able also to perform. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Romans 4:20–21 (KJV)
> [20] He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; [21] And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

The path of the just

Father, Your Word says the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Let the path of (my children) and (my loved ones) shine more and more, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Proverbs 4:18 (KJV)
> [18] But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

The LORD bless thee

The LORD bless (my family), and keep them. The LORD make His face shine upon them, and be gracious unto them. The LORD lift up His countenance upon them, and give them peace. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

> Numbers 6:24–26 (KJV)
> [24] The LORD bless thee, and keep thee: [25] The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: [26] The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

A. It replaces the need for a promise
B. It comes only to those who are young
C. It is a feeling with no result
D. God attends to His word and acts on what He has spoken

2. The words "without ceasing" in Acts 12:5 come from Strong's G1618 (ektenes). What kind of prayer does that describe?

A. Quiet and occasional
B. Spoken only by leaders
C. Brief and formal
D. Intent and fervent, stretched out toward God

3. In Luke 19:44 Jesus says Jerusalem "knewest not the time of thy visitation" (Greek episkope, G1984). What warning does this give?

A. Visitation cannot be missed
B. Visitation happens only in the temple
C. Only prophets can receive visitation
D. A people can fail to recognize the time when God draws near, and suffer loss

4. Romans 4:19 says Abraham "considered not his own body now dead." What do verses 20-21 describe instead?

A. He gave up and then was surprised
B. He asked for proof before believing
C. He staggered not through unbelief, was strong in faith, and was fully persuaded God was able to perform
D. He waited until he felt younger

5. Revelation 12:10 calls Satan "the accuser" (kategoros, G2725: one who brings a charge at law). By what three things did the brethren overcome him?

A. Michael's sword alone
B. Fasting, silence, and good works
C. Arguing their case before men
D. The blood of the Lamb, the word of their testimony, and loving not their lives unto the death

6. The Hebrew nachalah (H5159), "heritage" in Psalm 127:3, means an inheritance or possession. How does this shape a parent's view of children?

A. Children are a reward earned by effort
B. Children belong only to the parents
C. Children matter only when grown
D. Children are an inheritance from the LORD, entrusted to the family

7. Jacob (H3290, heel-catcher or supplanter) received a new name in Genesis 32:28. What was it, and why was it given?

A. Families turning away from the law
B. Children leaving their parents
C. Turning the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers
D. Fathers handing their duties to others

Answer key

Beginner 1: A. Praying without ceasing unto God for him. Acts 12:5 says prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. The next verses show God answering by sending His angel. Acts 12:5-7 (KJV)

Beginner 2: D. The angel of the Lord. Acts 12:7 says the angel of the Lord came upon him, a light shined in the prison, and his chains fell off from his hands. Acts 12:7-10 (KJV)

Beginner 3: B. In the tent door in the heat of the day. Genesis 18:1 says he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day. When he saw the three men, he ran to meet them. Genesis 18:1-3 (KJV)

Beginner 4: B. Laughter. Strong's H3327 gives "laughter." Sarah said, "God hath made me to laugh." ("God hears" is the meaning given for Ishmael, and "prince of God" relates to Israel.) Genesis 21:6-7 (KJV)

Beginner 5: A. An heritage of the LORD. Children are an heritage of the LORD, and the fruit of the womb is his reward. Verse 5 adds that the man whose quiver is full of them is happy. Psalm 127:3-5 (KJV)

Intermediate 1: C. Keep praying earnestly to God for them, as the church did. The church prayed without ceasing while Peter was kept in prison. In verse 11 Peter said the Lord had sent His angel and delivered him. The pattern is steady, earnest prayer to God. Acts 12:5-11 (KJV)

Intermediate 2: C. He ran to meet them, bowed, and asked them not to pass away from him. Genesis 18:2-3: he ran to meet them, bowed himself toward the ground, and said, "pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant." He did not let the moment pass by. Genesis 18:1-5 (KJV)

Intermediate 3: A. He asked, "Is any thing too hard for the LORD?" and set a time for the promise. Genesis 18:14: "Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee ... and Sarah shall have a son." The doubt did not cancel the promise. Genesis 18:9-14 (KJV)

Intermediate 4: D. By hearing, and hearing by the word of God. Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. Keeping the Word in the ear and in the mouth (Romans 10:8) is how faith is fed. Romans 10:17 (KJV)

Intermediate 5: A. Through faith, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Her faith rested on the character of God: she judged Him faithful who had promised. Strong's G4103, pistos, means trustworthy. Hebrews 11:11 (KJV)

Intermediate 6: A. Immediately he was made whole, took up his bed, and walked. John 5:9 says immediately the man was made whole. Thirty-eight years of waiting ended the moment the word of Jesus came. John 5:5-9 (KJV)

Intermediate 7: C. He rose early, sanctified them, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. Job rose up early in the morning and offered for each child. Verse 5 ends: "Thus did Job continually." Covering children in prayer was his regular practice, not a one-time act. Job 1:5 (KJV)

Advanced 1: D. God attends to His word and acts on what He has spoken. Paqad means to visit, attend to, or care for. Verse 1 links the visitation twice to God's word: "as he had said" and "as he had spoken." Verse 2 adds "at the set time." Genesis 21:1-3 (KJV)

Advanced 2: D. Intent and fervent, stretched out toward God. Ektenes means intent or fervent. Matthew Henry writes that it was "fervent prayer" and that "times of public distress and danger should be praying times with the church." Acts 12:5-7 (KJV)

Advanced 3: D. A people can fail to recognize the time when God draws near, and suffer loss. Episkope means inspection or visitation. Jerusalem's loss came "because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation." Compare Abraham, who recognized the moment and ran to meet it (Genesis 18:2). Luke 19:44 (KJV)

Advanced 4: C. He staggered not through unbelief, was strong in faith, and was fully persuaded God was able to perform. "Fully persuaded" translates plerophoreo (G4135), to be completely assured. Abraham's attention moved from his body to God's ability. Romans 4:17-21 (KJV)

Advanced 5: D. The blood of the Lamb, the word of their testimony, and loving not their lives unto the death. Revelation 12:11 names all three. An accuser brings charges; the answer is the blood of the Lamb and a testimony held firmly. Revelation 12:10-12 (KJV)

Advanced 6: D. Children are an inheritance from the LORD, entrusted to the family. Matthew Henry writes that children "are so to be accounted, blessings and not burdens." Psalm 127:1 also reminds the household that except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain. Psalm 127:1-5 (KJV)

Advanced 7: C. Israel, because as a prince he had power with God and with men, and had prevailed. Strong's H3478 relates Israel to "God prevails." The change of name marked a change of identity after Jacob wrestled and would not let go. Genesis 32:27-28 (KJV)

Advanced 8: C. She asked her husband to build Elisha a little chamber with a bed, table, stool, and candlestick. Her honor was practical and generous. The service named Elijah; 2 Kings 4:8-9 in the King James text names Elisha. 2 Kings 4:8-10 (KJV)

Advanced 9: C. He cast salt into the spring, and the LORD said, "I have healed these waters". 2 Kings 2:21: "there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land." The same place that carried a curse received healing by the word of the LORD. 2 Kings 2:19-22 (KJV)

Advanced 10: C. Turning the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers. The verse describes restoration in both directions: fathers to children and children to fathers. It is a fitting word for family prayer. Malachi 4:6 (KJV)
